

Robert M. Noonan
Assistant Commissioner
Office of Systems Management
U.S. General Services Administration

Robert Noonan serves as GSA's Assistant Commissioner for the Office of Systems Management. His responsibilities include the Integrated Award Environment and Common Acquisition Platform environments.

He previously served as Deputy Assistant Secretary (DAS) for Administration, at the Administration for Children and Families (ACF), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS). Among other duties, he led efforts to streamline and improve the delivery of administrative services in support of ACF's core mission areas. Prior DHHS positions included service as the DAS for the DHHS Office of Business Management and Transformation, acting Director for the DHHS Office of Grants Management, and Director of the Program Support Center, Administrative Operations Service.

Prior to joining DHHS, Assistant Commissioner Noonan served in the U.S. Navy in both the Atlantic and Pacific fleets. He graduated with distinction from the U.S. Naval War College and received a Masters in Health Services Administration from The George Washington University.